

Research Seminars at WEST 2010/11

- 1st September 2010 Ted Turnau (Anglo-American University of Prague), 'Media Fandom as New Religion'
- 29th September 2010 Steve Sullivan (WEST), 'The Isaianic New Exodus in Romans 9-11'
- 13th October 2010 Stephen Levinsohn (SIL International), 'The Relevance of Discourse Studies to Exegesis: Distinguishing Hebrew 'ak from raq'
- 28th October 2010 Douglas Kelly (Reformed Theological Seminary, Charlotte), 'What about the Covenant of Works?'
- 10th November 2010 Gerald Bray (Beeson Divinity School), 'God is Love. The Basis for a Systematic Theology'
- 24th November 2010 Natalie Brand (WEST) 'Reformed Feminine Spirituality and Union with Christ'
- 1st December 2010 Tom Holland (WEST) 'Christ is the End of the Law'
- 2nd February 2011 Iwan Rhys Jones (WEST), 'CH Dodd and Bible Translation'
- 16th February 2011 Richard Cozart (WEST) 'Ephesians and the New Exodus'
- 2nd March 2011 Gordon Wenham (Trinity College, Bristol) 'What Are We Doing Singing the Psalms?'
- 16th March 2011 Colin Hamer (WEST), 'Mark 10:12: Are the Judaeen Desert Papyri a Key to its Interpretation?'
- 23rd March 2011 Andrew Lincoln (University of Gloucestershire) Title TBC
- 6th April 2011 Gyeong Yang.Kim (WEST) 'Aquinas's Natural Law as a Basis for Dialogue with Muslims'

The seminars will be held at 1-2pm in the chapel at Wales Evangelical School of Theology.

Attendance is free and a sandwich lunch will be available for purchase.

The seminars are of an academic nature and will be of interest to pastors and church leaders with formal academic training.

For further information contact ralphcunnington@west.org